

Dear Parent/Carer

elc International School works with Cambridge International Examinations to deliver both the Cambridge Primary Checkpoint and Cambridge IGCSE programmes.

Cambridge International Examinations is changing its name to better reflect who they are and what they do. Their new name is Cambridge Assessment International Education.

Cambridge International Examinations Chief Executive Michael O'Sullivan explains: "Today, what we provide has expanded well beyond our programme of 20 years ago, when we first used the name Cambridge International Examinations – so much so, that a change of name is called for."

Assessment remains at the heart of what Cambridge does, which is why it's included in the new name. The word 'education' has been added to the organisation's name to reflect a wider focus on helping our school develop the whole education that we provide for your child. Examinations remain very important, but the expansion of the services that Cambridge International provides includes improving curriculum, teaching and assessment to support learning.

You will also see the term 'Cambridge Pathway'. This is a new way to describe Cambridge International's educational programmes for schools.

Although the name is changing, Cambridge programmes and qualifications will retain the same high quality that parents, schools and universities worldwide have come to trust. Cambridge International's relationship with the University of Cambridge is unchanged.

You will continue to see old logos on materials while Cambridge International updates them, and this includes certificates. For exams taken in 2018 and beyond, certificates will include the new name and logo. For more information and what is changing when go to www.cambridgeinternational.org/newname

We are excited about these changes and look forward to working with you and Cambridge International to help every student learn, discover and achieve.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Loo Chuan Kian

Examinations Officer
elc International School